

Member bulletin

March 31, 2015

Western Health Summit 2015

HEABC is pleased to partner with the Conference Board of Canada to offer HEABC members a reduced rate ($1,295) to attend the upcoming Western Health Summit: Making Change That Makes a Difference happening on Monday, May 11 and Tuesday, May 12, 2015 in Edmonton, AB.

This Summit will focus on changes to improve the health care system now by sharing best practices and successes and exchanging ideas to help improve health care change management performance.

The Conference Board has developed an agenda to reflect the need for change within the health care system. Speakers include leading health experts that will address the necessary changes and how to approach them within health care organizations, including:

- Dianne Balon, Vice-President, Government, Alberta Blue Cross
- Dr. Linda E. Carlson, Professor, Department of Oncology, Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary
- Timothy Caulfield, Professor, Faculty of Law and School of Public Health, University of Alberta and Author, Is Gwyneth Paltrow Wrong About Everything?
- Dr. Michael A. Gardam, Chair, Medical Advisory Committee, University Health Network
- Brennan McEachran, Chief Executive Officer, SoapBox Innovations Inc.
- Louis Thériault, Vice-President, Public Policy, Conference Board of Canada
- Leslee J. Thompson, President & Chief Executive Officer, Kingston General Hospital
- Pamela Winsor, Director, Health System Strategies & Chief Marketing Officer, Medtronic of Canada Ltd.

For a detailed agenda and full list of speakers, please visit conferenceboard.ca/conf/healthwest/agenda.

How to register

To register, visit the Conference Board of Canada online registration page and enter the rebate code PRM12 to receive the discounted rate.

Contact

If you have any questions about registration or the program, please contact Emily Hayward at hayward@conferenceboard.ca or (613) 526.3090 extension 393.

For more information, please visit the Conference Board of Canada.